TEACHER OF HISTORY – SENIOR SCHOOL

We seek to appoint a highly-qualified, talented and motivated historian to cover maternity leave. We are looking for a candidate who is going to be able to teach across KS3 and at GCSE level in our Senior School. They will be an outstanding practitioner who is passionate about their subject and fully committed to the highest standards in teaching and learning. In addition he/she will be prepared to contribute to our intervention programme and ensure our pupils reach their full potential.

We are looking for someone who is meticulous with assessment and associated record keeping. The appointed candidate will also be highly organised, approachable and able to demonstrate excellent interpersonal and communication skills and will lead by example to inspire and motivate our pupils. The successful candidate will also be expected to make an enthusiastic contribution to the extra-curricular provision within our School.

This is an exciting opportunity to join a flourishing 3-16 co-educational, independent day school, part of the Cognita group of schools. If you are passionate about the life chances of young people and possess the expertise required to teach in an environment where children of mixed abilities excel, then we would love to hear from you.

Consistent with our traditional values, classes are small, behavioural standards are exceptional, and pastoral care is second to none. We are very focused on top quality teaching and learning, and expect all of our pupils to make exceptional progress.

We have a passion for your personal and professional development; there are the longer term career opportunities that exist in a company which owns 67 schools worldwide.
