

Teacher of History – Senior School

Contract: Part Time, Permanent (0.6FTE)

Commencing: September 2019

Closing Date for Applications: 12th April 2019

Would you thrive in a school ethos that provides a “family” environment for our pupils in a dynamic, vibrant learning culture where the character, personality and individuality of all pupils are developed?

This is an exciting opportunity to join our fantastic team in a top independent co-educational school for children from ages 3 to 16 years. Consistent with our traditional values, classes are small, behavioural standards are exceptional, and pastoral care is second to none. We are very focused on top quality teaching and learning, and expect all of our pupils to make exceptional progress.

We are looking for a candidate who is going to be able to teach across KS3 and at GCSE level in our Senior School. They will be an outstanding practitioner who is passionate about their subject and fully committed to the highest standards in teaching and learning. In addition he/she will be prepared to contribute to our intervention programme and ensure our pupils reach their full potential. The ability to liaise with and involve parents in their child’s education is essential. It is important that the successful candidate will have good interpersonal skills, be willing to work as part of a team and is fully committed to our extra-curricular programme.

We recruit high calibre staff who are committed to achieving the highest standards but, equally importantly, have the ability to look ahead with enthusiasm to contribute to the future of the School. If you are passionate about the life chances of young people and possess the expertise required then we would love to hear from you.
